

Wear a vest under your top which will keep your tummy covered when you lift your top to nurse.

If you are feeling nervous when baby is still learning to latch, any blanket or muslin can be tucked in your strap to provide some cover until baby is feeding.